Preface.

In the following pages will be found a transcript of the Registers which were kept by the Reverend Alexander Keith and his assistants at St. George's Chapel, Mayfair, from 1735 to 1743 or 1744, and from then to 1754 at a private dwelling-house adjacent thereto. They are now in the custody of the Rector and Churchwardens of St. George's, Hanover Square, to whom the Society are greatly indebted for the facilities afforded for transcribing them. The short history of these Registers is contained in the deposition of James Frith, who by his own account was Clerk of the said Chapel, and is as follows:

"James Frith Senior of the Parish of Saint George Hanover Square in the County of Middlesex maketh oath and saith that on the Death of the late Reverend Alexander Keith he this Deponent was employed to look into his Effects and amongst them found the annexed Book and two others which are respectively marked with the Letters A B and C, the first of which is intitled thus vizt 'An Account or Register of Marriages at St George's Chapel Hyde Park Corner in the Liberty of Westminster' and begins with the Register of the Marriage of James Dolliffe Esquire and Anne Western in these words and figures namely 'Feb. 21 1735 James Dolliffe Esqr of St Andrew Holbourn Bat. & Anne Western of St Anns Westm^{r} Widow married by Alex^{r} Keith.' And ends with the Register of the Marriage of Thomas Anthony & Mrs Martha Farwood of St Olave Southwark 1020.' The second is entitled thus (vizt) 'Baptisms and Marriages' and begins with the Register of the Marriage of Mr Nathaniel Rawlings and Mrs Johanna Lattimore in these words and figures viz. '28 July 1744 Mr Nathaniel Rawlings of St Martins and Mrs Johanna Lattimore of Richmond Surry 1021' and ends with the Register of the Marriage of John Burgess and Susanna Young in these words and figures (viz.) '30' (referring to September 1749 which is set at the top of the Page) 'John Burgess & Susanna Young of St Giles' in the Fields.' The third begins with a remark in these words and figures namely '30th Septr 1749. John Burgess and Susanna Young of St Giles' in the ffields being the last in the former Register the next in course is,'

which is followed with the Register of the Marriage of Nicholas Russell and Joanna Holloday in these words and figures namely '1st Octr 1749 Nicholas Russell of St George Hanover Square and Joanna Holloday of St Giles' in the Fields' and ends with the . . . . Register of the Marriage of William Wright and Ann Hobbs in these words and figures viz. '25' (referring to March 1754 which is set at the top of the Page following) (that is to say) 'From October 1753 to This Day 1136.' At the beginning and end of the writing in each of which said Books so far as relates to the Registers of Marriages he this Deponent has set his name and that he believes the said Books to be the original and true Register Books of Marriages celebrated by the said Alexander Keith and his assistants some thereof, namely these preceding the year 1743 or 1744 in May Fair Chapel and those after that period in a private Dwelling House near to the said Chapel and this Deponent further says that the reason for such his belief is that in the year 1743 or 1744 at which time the said Alexander Keith left May Fair Chapel he this Deponent was appointed Clerk of the said Chapel and continued so about twenty years during which time he became and was intimately acquainted with the said Alexander Keith, and also with the several persons who officiated from time to time as Clerk to the said Alexander Keith and thereby had frequent opportunities of seeing and did often see the said Books which he was told had been and from his own observation believes always were used by the said Alexander Keith and his assistants for the purpose of registering therein such Marriages as they from time to time celebrated in the aforesaid Chapel and dwelling House and for no other purpose whatsoever except as to the Registers of certain Baptisms which appear at the end of the Book marked with the Letter A and as to certain accounts which appear at the beginning and end of the Book marked with the Letter B. And this Deponent saith that the said three Books are the same which this Deponent brought from the Fleet Prison from amongst the effects of the said Alexander Keith after his decease and which afterwards he this Deponent caused to be delivered to some person ordered as this Deponent was then informed by the Rector and Church Wardens or the Vestry of the said Parish to demand the same of this Deponent for the use of the said Parish.

"JAMES FRITH, Senr."

"Sworn at the House of Mr James Frith the Deponent in May ffair in Parish of St George Hanover Square this 14th Day of ffebruary 1780 before me

"S. PESHALL."

The first of these books, marked A, is in one handwriting, and each entry is signed A. Keith until the 24th of April 1743. The same writing continues in Book B to the 29th March 1748, when there is a note, "Mr. Bailie begins to write." The remainder of Book B and Book C are in the same handwriting.

When Mr. John Southerden Burn wrote his book on the Fleet Registers in 1833, there were at the Bishop of London's Registry seven volumes of Registers at Mayfair Chapel, which he describes on p. 102 as follows:—

No. 1. A short folio, commencing 19 March 1729, and ending 31 May 1731, intituled "Dr. Keith's Regestar Book of Marriages, No. 3 May Fair." It contains about 1300 entries, and has an index.

No. 2. A thin short folio, commencing 29 Sept. 1747, ending 28 Sept. 1749, intituled "The Register Book of Marriages performed by John Grierson, Minister, at May Fair Chapel," and endorsed "No 2 Register of Marriages, 1747, 1748, 1749, May Fair." It contains 2403 entries, and at the other end are Baptisms from 1747 to 1752, several of which are of the Peterborough family.

No. 3. A short thick folio, commencing 29 Sept. 1749, ending 31 Oct. 1753, indorsed "No. 3 Register for Marriages, May Fair." It contains 6258 entries.

No. 4. A short folio of Fleet Marriages, at one end of which are "Marriages performed by Mr. Symson at May Fair in 1748." It commences 12 April 1748, and contains 86 entries, after which is added, "No. 86, all married by Mr. Symson at May Fair."

No. 5. A folio, intituled "The Register Book of Marriages begun April 9, 1748, at the New Chapel, May Fair." The Marriages are all by Mr. Symson, but many of them appear to be Fleet Marriages. It has an index.

No. 6. A small quarto, commencing 9 Dec. 1750, ending 25 March 1754, intituled "The Register Book of Marriages performed by the Reverend Mr. Peter Symson, Mr. Fran^s Denevau, for Keith, May Fair."

No. 7. A thin folio, ending 25 March 1754, indorsed "No. 1, Dr. Keith's Book. The Register for Marriages, 1 November 1753, 1754, May Fair." It has an index.

These books have been carefully examined with the Mayfair Registers at St. George's, Hanover Square, and in all cases appear to be duplicates thereof, with the exception of No. 1, and a few entries in No. 4. They are now in the custody of the Registrar-General at Somerset House, and by his permission the entries that are not in the copy at St. George's have been transcribed and added to this Volume (see p. 285). In my opinion those at Somerset House contain the entries originally made by the clergyman who performed the ceremony, and were subsequently transcribed into the books kept at the Chapel.

According to Mr. John Southerden Burn, this Chapel was built about the year 1730, and was one of those for the performance of the marriage ceremony without obtaining a licence, or publication of banns, or consent of parents. These marriages were called clandestine marriages, and although irregular, were at that time perfectly valid and binding.

The Rev. Alexander Keith was appointed to officiate there. He began to marry ad libitum, and Lord Orford describes him to have constructed a very bishopric of revenue. He advertised in the papers the advantage of a wedding at his Chapel at Mayfair.

The then Rector of St. George's, Hanover Square, commenced a suit against him at Doctors' Commons. He was decreed excommunicated on the 27th of October 1742. In April 1743 he was committed to the Fleet Prison.

This is not surprising, for the revenue accruing to Keith must have materially affected the pocket of the Rector of St. George's, Hanover Square.

The number of marriages registered at each Church is shewn in the following table:

	St. George's, Hanover Square.	Mayfair Chapel.
1735	66	2
1736	75	5
1738	72	10
1739	83	16
1740	72	20
1741	65	117
1742	40	723

In 1743 there were 117 marriages in one month only at Mayfair.

On referring to the Register, p. 33, it will be observed that there then occurs an interruption of thirteen months and three days. This, however, did not prevent the continuance of marriages in this district, for in The General Advertiser of 20 July 1744 occurs the following advertisement:—

"To prevent mistakes, the little New Chapel, in May Fair, near Hyde Park Corner, is in the Corner House opposite to the City Side of the Great Chapel, and within ten yards of it, and the Minister and Clerk live in the same Corner House where the little Chapel is, and the Licence on a Crown Stamp. Minister and Clerk's Fees, together with the Certificate, amount to One Guinea as heretofore, at any Time 'till Four in the Afternoon: And that it may be the better known, there is a Porch at the Door like a Country Church Porch."

Again, in The London Gazeteer of January 12, 1749:—

"The way to Mr. Keith's Chapel is thro' Piccadilly, by the End of St. James's Street, and down Clarges Street, and turn on the Left-hand. The Marriages (together with a Licence on a Five Shilling Stamp, and Certificate) are carried on for a Guinea, as usual, and Time till Four in the Afternoon, by another regular Clergyman, at Mr. Keith's Little Chapel in May-Fair, near Hyde Park Corner, opposite the great Chapel and within Ten Yards of it. There is a Porch at the Door like a Country Church Porch."

The marriages recommenced on 30th May 1744, and were celebrated by one of his assistants—the Rev. Peter Symson, Francis Denevau, the Rev. John Grierson, or Mr. Walker.

Mr. Keith was probably in prison for about fifteen years. He died in the Fleet Prison on the 13th December 1758. In 1753 he published a pamphlet, "Observations on the Act for preventing Clandestine Marriages."

The Register contains several notable marriages, but it would be beyond the limits of this Preface to enumerate them. In its pages are to be found, amongst many others, the records of the marriages of the Duke of Hamilton and Miss Elizabeth Gunning, on the 14th of February 1752. Horace Walpole, in a letter to Mr. Mann dated 27 Feb. 1752, says, "The event which has made most noise since my last is the extensive wedding of the youngest of the two Gunnings, ... they were married with a ring of the bed-curtain, at half an hour after twelve at night, at Mayfair Chapel."*

Lord George Bentinck and Mary Davies were married here on the 29th of June 1753.

Sir James Dashwood, Bart., of Northbrook, married Elizabeth, the dau. and coheir of Edward Spencer, Esq., of Rendlesham in Suffolk, on the 17th of February 1738-9. They had three daughters, one married the Duke of Manchester, another the Earl of Galloway, and a third Lucy Knightley of Fawsley, Esq.

On the 17th of March 1746, Lord Stanley married Mrs. Lucy Smith. He was the eldest son of Sir Edward Stanley, who succeeded as 11th Earl of Derby, and the ancestor of the present Earl: and,

On Christmas Day 1744, the Duke of Cleveland was married at this chapel.

The marriages at Mayfair were stopped by the passing of Lord Hardwick's Marriage Act, which came into operation on the 25th of March 1754; but on referring to the Register it will be seen that no fewer than sixty-one couples were married on the previous day.

The best thanks of the Society are due to the Rev. Capel Cure, the Rector of St. George's, Hanover Square, for the permission he has given to transcribe the Registers; and also to the Registrar-General for kindly permitting them to be completed from the volumes in his possession; and last, but not least, to Mr. John Eedes, who with his usual accuracy has made a most faithful transcript.

Circumstances beyond the Editor's control have unfortunately delayed the earlier publication of this Volume.
